Manhattan Project II: Ending the Nuclear Weapons Era

A lecture by
Daniel Ellsberg, PhD
Physicians for Social Responsibility

Tuesday • February 15 • 8:00
State Historical Society Auditorium
816 State Street

Daniel Ellsberg is the director of the Manhattan Project II of the Physicians for Social Responsibility. He is the former Defense and State Department official who drafted the Kennedy Administration guidance for nuclear war plans in 1961. In 1971 he released the classified Pentagon Papers which forced a more open public discussion of Viet Nam War decision making.
